Gents. While off on a short vacation at Colo Springs & Manitou I bought the above inset. The piece is 1/4 inch thick. The inscription as above. The piece is hammered gold shows hammer marks both sides letters and figures punched in. it is fine. This piece is similar to those oblong pieces described in Scotts. but the value is $13.32 The assayers name is omitted. The party of whom I got it. Claims to have got it in Cal. in an early day. was paid to him as so much money. The weight would indicate more value. but the fineness 716 would reduce val. to $13.32 Can you tell me anything about the piece. and about the Numismatic value of it. please answer

[“You certainly made a mistake”...]

Denver Colo.,July 29th.,1904

Messers.S.H.& H.Chapman,
#1348 Pine St.,Phila.,Pa.

Gents.,-

your letter with bill of last auction is at hand and in reply will say that you certainly made a mistake. There were only two coins in the package;1863 California 1/4 dollar and the New Jersey Cent. The cent I returned and paid for the1/4 dollr Mr.George Eavenson was present when t he registered letter came and will verify my statment. You probably through some mistake mailed the Cal.,Gold that should have come to me,to some one else,and the Jersey cent to me that should have gone to some one else. If the Cal.,Gold 1/2 dollar that should have come to me is found you may send same to me and I will remit for it at once.

The foregoing statment is true which I can prove if you so wish by George Eavenson. There were only two envelopes, one containing the 1863 1/4 gold and the other the cent. I did not think but that you would see the mistake at once and look up the matter and send on the Cal.,Gold at once. I dont like to have these things occur as they are apt to mix matters but of course do happen at times even if the greatest care is taken. As for myself I know that I make mistakes and so always take every precaution to have everything exactly straight. I hope that you will be able to trace the matter as it would be of much satisfaction to me to have you find everything as I have represented it to y you of course I mean at your end of the line as far as this end is concerned I am postive that I am right.

Yours very truly,
